Tabor UMC Pastor Alan J. Smith said, “We are very pleased about offering our members and the public this unique and life transforming seminar on encouraging God’s people to become a people of prayer and to take another step in spiritual renewal in their lives. This seminar is another example of how GOD is calling upon Tabor UMC and its members to provide valuable and empowering outreach to the many residents in the surrounding communities we serve.”

TUMC is located at 2209 Hendricks Station Road in Woxall, Upper Salford Township, Montgomery County. TUMC was founded over 100 years ago, has over 300 members, and offers 3 Sunday worship services. Other programs include a Sunday School for all ages, a Christian Nursery School, and Youth Programming and Outreach.

TUMC supports international missionary work including the World Mission Prayer League and the United Mission to Nepal. TUMC also supports many other charities and social service agencies in Eastern Pennsylvania. More information about Tabor UMC, its many programs, and its congregation’s outreach can be found at its web site, www.tabor-umc.org or by calling TUMC at 215-234-4852.
